Your Church Home In Silver Spring

From The Pastor's Desk

The pathway of faith has a divine purpose, and we're to obey, no matter what. But even when God's direction is perplexing, we can count on the fact that He is good and has a purpose for our adversity.

Walking obediently with Christ doesn't guarantee an easy life. The apostle Paul encountered all kinds of hardships, including shipwreck, persecution, and beatings. During these times, it is good to know that nothing touches a believer without God's loving permission. He will use difficulty, heartache, persecution, and sorrow to strengthen and correct His children. We can take comfort during our trials that our heavenly Father protects us in all situations.

Every heart yearns for true peace. Walking in obedience and trust in the Lord Jesus is the only avenue for true peace. As the apostle Paul sat in an uncomfortable Roman prison where his life was in danger, he encouraged all believers not to worry but to pray with thanksgiving.

The only victorious way to live is to trust in almighty God and follow wherever He leads. That is the road to contentment, fulfillment, protection, and peace. Why? Because we will be walking with Him, who is the Prince of Peace, Lord of Lords and the One Who conquered death, hell, and the grave.
